A MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

Rabbi Brian P. Immerman

Most seder plates look the same with the ingredients specified in the Haggadah. For many Ashkenazi Jews, those of Eastern European descent, our interpretations of these items descends from the ingredients available to us now and to our parents, grandparents, and many generations before. The same is true for Sefardic Jews, those with roots in Northern Africa and the Middle East. Yet aside from different charoset recipes, the Seder plates still do not often diverge. Some time ago, a man commented about female rabbis, quipping that “a woman on the bima is like an orange on the Seder plate.” In response, Reform Jews began adding an orange to the plate.

Over time, people have offered many other ingredients in order to signify the struggles of marginalized groups - women, LGBTQ, trans, people of color, and more. In 2019, Chef Michael Twitty offered a very different interpretation of bitter herbs and the other items on the Seder plate with his “African American Seder Plate for Passover,” which you can find on his blog, Afroculinaria. He suggests that people of African American heritage could replace many of the “traditional” foods with those that represented the story of Black American oppression. Regardless of what ingredients we choose for our Seder plates, these foods are supposed to remind us about the core themes of Passover - the bitterness of bondage and the promise of redemption.

God commands us to both remember that God freed the Israelite people and to see ourselves in the story as well. “And you should explain to your child on that day, ‘It is because of what God did for me when I went free from Egypt.’ (Exodus 13:8)” We recite this line in the Seder to remind ourselves that we have experienced redemption, perhaps ongoing for most of us, from the narrow places in which we find ourselves. For some of us, these might be more figurative than literal, and we pray that we all find freedom through our own efforts and the help of friends and family. We also accept the obligation to help others along the way, people we know and strangers who need our help. We can find the connections to our past and to others through food.

CANTOR'S NOTES

Cantor Arthur Giglio

SAVE THE DATE! Saturday, April 29 at 6:00 p.m. is the Annual Cantor's Concert Fundraiser. We have all suffered through the last three years of the pandemic and now it is time to have some real fun. This year "The Memales" are coming to CMI to bring us an extraordinary musical event. Three very talented young women will bless us with an over the top evening of entertainment with music from their Yiddish and Broadway repertoire. One of the three singers, Maya Jacobson is my best friend's daughter. Ellen and I have known her since she was a twinkle in her mom and dad's eyes. Maya is ridiculously talented and I have been trying to get her to CMI since before the pandemic. Ellen and I watched her grow up from a shy little girl to a very gifted singer/performer. She and her two talented friends Jodi Snyder and Raquel Nobile are "The Memales". This is a concert for everyone, young and old alike. It will be an evening for families of all ages. If your children have to go to bed early, get a sitter, come to CMI and you will be thrilled that you did!

Maya Jacobson is an actor, singer, and writer based in Brooklyn, NY and is the founder of "The Memales". She is the daughter of my dear friend and mentor, Cantor Deborah Jacobson and Jordan Jacobson. Maya is also the granddaughter of Holocaust survivor, Michael Frenkel. Most recently, Maya played Chava in the highly acclaimed production of Fiddler on the Roof at The Lyric Opera of Chicago, which is one of the world's major Opera Houses. Currently, Maya is working on a one-woman show titled The Cantor's Daughter and was a 2013 National Finalist in The Great American Songbook Competition. Maya is a graduate of The Boston Conservatory.

Raquel Nobile is a New York and Philly based actor and singer. She most recently played Shprintze in the multiple award winning Off-Broadway production of the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene's production, Fiddler on the Roof, which was in Yiddish and directed by Joel Grey. Raquel performs regularly at The Harvard Club in NYC as their Resident Vocalist. An actor of

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

David E. Silverstone

I love Spring. Winter is always challenging. Spring announces that we made it through the winter and all its challenges.

Flowers are starting to bloom and the weather is getting warmer. The sun is rising earlier and setting later. Snowbirds and migrating birds are all returning. It is as if we are being reborn. Life is good. There is excitement about all that we have to look forward to.

Spring also brings Purim and Passover. Purim is celebrated with unbridled joy. I was amazed the first time I experienced Purim in Israel to see virtually everyone dancing in the streets in costumes. Celebrations are wonderful—especially when we enjoy them together. Passover is one of the most celebrated of Jewish Holidays and we often invite our non-Jewish friends and neighbors to join us. We commemorate the exodus from Egypt, and we use the holiday and the Seder meal celebration to reaffirm our commitment to working together to create a better world.

This year we have so much to celebrate. We are moving forward from the dark days of the pandemic. This year we will once again have our joyous Purim Spiel that is being led by Julie Chevan and her committee. In addition, this year we will once again have our traditional second night Passover Seder when we can all gather and recommit ourselves to a meaningful Jewish life based on our core values.

We look forward to celebrating with you!

Happy Spring!
Chag Purim Sameach!
Chag Passover Sameach!

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Recently there has been a resurgence in a younger generation seeking to reclaim the food culture of their ancestors. For example, Michael Twitty through his African American roots, or in cookbooks like The Gefilte Manifesto, a “reclamation of time-honored techniques and ingredients, from the mind-blowingly easy Classic Sour Dill Pickles to the Crispy Honey-Glazed Chicken with Tsimmes.” With the hag-gadah as the original (OG) link to our past, Passover is a time that many of us cook what had been cooked for us, and these traditions surround us with generations of people upon whose shoulders we stand.

Whether your Seder plate and table look the same as they have for decades or you choose to add something, may the foods on our tables inspire us to remember, discuss, and ultimately to act in creating a better world for ourselves and others. May everyone partake in the Passover rituals and may we continue to find and bring about redemption.

CANTOR'S NOTES

Puerto Rican descent, she has learned about the Jewish culture through studying and performing with some of New York's most prolific “Yiddishists”.

Jodi Snyder, is a NYC based actor, singer and voice-over artist from Chicago. Jodi also recently starred in the Off- Broadway production of the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbienes, Fiddler on the Roof, haunting the stage as Fruma Sarah! Jodi earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Musical Theater at Syracuse University. We are excited to announce that The Memales will be accompanied on the keyboard by our very own and extremely talented, Eric Trudel. Eric teaches at the Hartt School of Music and SCSU. He has been an accompanist at major opera houses all over the world and is fluent in six languages.

The Cantor's Concert is an incredibly important fundraiser, so please purchase tickets and attend, donate if you are able and support CMI. All funds raised will ensure CMI continues to endure as the wonderful family community that we are. Put it on your calendars now. Please join us for what promises to be a most memorable evening of theater and song!

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

Jewish Community Alliance for Refugee Resettlement (JCARR)

Religious School Students Support JCARR

l'dor v'dor—From generation to generation. Recently, our hearts were lifted by youth-led activities at Congregation Mishkan Israel, which made significant, meaningful contributions to JCARR's refugee resettlement work.

At CMI, Eli Rudikoff and Pierson Canavan represented JCARR at CMI's Mitzvah Mall. These longtime friends were excited to work together. Eli helped his mother with her JCARR volunteer activities as a younger child and shared what he already knew with Pierson. The boys educated themselves about JCARR'S mission and created a trifold poster board highlighting JCARR's work.

They answered questions such as “What is a refugee?” and both were articulate and tailored their responses to each student's level. The boys also offered JCARR's “Welcome the Stranger” greeting cards available for purchase.

Additionally, their presentation resulted in the 2020 B'nai Mitzvah class choosing JCARR as one of three organizations to receive money that the 2020 B'nai mitzvah parents pooled for a charitable donation. Due to COVID, the selection process was delayed and after the 2020 B'nai mitzvah students listened to student representatives of various organizations, they voted for JCAAR and 2 other organizations to receive a donation.

Because the Mitzvah Mall is a seventh and eighth-grade project, this was Eli and Pierson's second and final year as JCARR representatives. They enjoyed working together, learning more about JCARR, and sharing their knowledge.

Pierson says. "It was an enjoyable experience, and I like how it helps people look for the life they deserve. Eli agreed. "I was surprised at how much I learned and was able to share." Both boys think it would be wonderful to find additional ways to involve teens in JCARRS's work. Todah Rabah CMI, Eli, and Pierson!

NURSERY SCHOOL NEWS

Susan Witten Nason,
Early Childhood Director

So much excitement and fun is happening in March and April. The weather is getting nicer and we will spend more and more time outdoors.

We will spend time preparing for Purim-reading stories, making groggers and eating delicious Hamantaschen. The celebration concludes with our costume parade through the school, upstairs to the synagogue where the staff and Rabbi Immerman greet us. Finally, we head outside and make lots of noise and shout, "Boo, Haman!"

In April, it is time to learn all about Passover and prepare for our mini Seders. We enjoy our matzah and try some different ways to eat it. Some of us will be okay with going back to bread!

Happy Spring to all.

PE'AH GARDEN

Do you like to dig in the dirt and make new friends (or chat with old ones)? Joining our our Pe'ah Garden committee will be a perfect way to do both and help your community as well. Half of the produce grown is brought to local food pantries & half is for our gardeners to enjoy at home. You do not need to be an experienced gardener to participate. Volunteers are needed to help weed, harvest and to transport harvests to the food pantries. For more information or to join the Pe'ah Garden, please contact Stephen Grossman at sgrossman01@snet.net.

HOME GARDENERS: Do you ever have an overabundance of zucchini, tomatoes, kale, etc.? We have a new program for you. We will now accept your excess fresh produce to be delivered to food pantries along with our pe'ah garden harvest. For more information on this new opportunity, please contact Kathryn Picanso at picanso@yahoo.com.

CMI COMMUNITY NEWS

Rosh Chodesh

Hebrew for “head of the month”, Rosh Chodesh is the monthly holiday that celebrates the arrival of the new moon, marking the start of a new month in the Jewish calendar. # MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. WEEKEND EVENTS RECAP

MLK Interfaith Service

CMI held its annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Interfaith Service on Friday January 13. A diverse group of faith leaders (pictured) joined Rabbi Immerman, Cantor Giglio and the CMI Chorale with soloist Mandi Jackson and pianist John Letteri, to honor Dr. King. For the first time since the beginning of the pandemic, 200 people attended in person, with another 200 on livestream.

The guest speaker was Dr. Deitra Reiser (at Rabbi Brockman's left in the photo), an educational psychologist and founder of Transform for Equity, an antiracist repair group that supports organizations and leaders in building capacity for diversity, racial equity and belonging. Her sermon, Co-conspiring for Liberation, focused on the imperative that we work to build cross-race relationships while accepting that it is often uncomfortable. A Black Jew, Deitra plays a key role in the Union of Reform Judaism's initiatives to promote diversity, racial equity and belonging in the wider Jewish community.

Torah Study

On Shabbat morning, Deitra co-led Torah Study with Rabbi Immerman. After Rabbi shared his d'var torah, she facilitated a discussion about Jews and white identity. When questions arose about whether Jews are white, she offered the term "White eligible."

Dr. Deitra Reiser

After spirited discussion of our historical, individual, family and social identities, we acknowledged the reality that these change and evolve. Dr. Reiser encouraged us to work on “getting comfortable with discomfort.”

Shabbat Discussion with Multiracial Families

The final event of our 2023 MLK Weekend was a Shabbat luncheon for multi-racial families within the CMI community. Dr. Reiser joined the multi-generational group for conversation about their experiences at CMI.

Deitra divided the group into pairs for more focused conversations. Each pair noted comfortable, satisfying aspects of life at CMI, and were asked to identify one thing that would improve the CMI community. The ensuing full group discussion was lively, with adults, youth and children all making thoughtful contributions.

Our time with Dr. Reiser was limited, and it is clear there is interest in further engagement. If you would like to connect with other multiracial families and people of color at CMI, or to participate in future gatherings, please reach out to Nancy Moss-Racusin at nancymr@snet.net.
